

The Court finds an immediate need to revise Dayton Municipal Court Rule (DMCR) 2.32, Special Projects Fee, to increase the special projects fee to $26.00:

Rule 2.32 – DMC Special Projects Fee

- A. The Dayton Municipal Court has determined that, for the efficient operation of the Court, additional funds are necessary to acquire and pay for special projects of the Court, including, but not limited to: additional facilities or the rehabilitation of existing facilities; equipment; the hiring and training of staff; community service programs; mediation or dispute resolution services; the employment of magistrates; the training and education of judges, acting judges, and magistrates; and other related services.
- B. As of February 1, 2018, the Court shall charge a court special projects fee of $26.00 in addition to all other court costs, pursuant to R.C. 1901.26(B), on the filing of each action or proceeding for criminal, civil, traffic, judgment by confession and other causes.
- C. All special projects fees shall be paid to the City of Dayton Treasurer for deposit into the Dayton Municipal Court General Special Projects Fund. All monies in the General Special Projects Fund shall be disbursed for special court projects by Order of the Dayton Municipal Court Administrative Judge. Any monies left over in the General Special Projects Fund at the end of each fiscal year shall be carried over to the next year, unless ordered transferred to another account by the DMC Administrative Judge.
